

GTHL Teams Up With Goodwill In An Effort Make Hockey More Accessible”

“Your Donation Gets Everyone In The Game”

TORONTO (Friday April 8, 2011) – The Greater Toronto Hockey League announced that it has teamed up with Goodwill in a project to collect and distribute used hockey equipment to establish a hockey equipment bank to assist players and families who would like to get involved in hockey but have financial challenges and cannot afford to purchase new equipment to play.

From April 11 to April 24 during GTHL Tryouts, Goodwill will be collecting hockey equipment at the following sites.
